Beyond Seven Palms: Honoring the Thomas Mann House

L.A. Conservancy 2025 Benefit
Sunday, October 5
Pacific Palisades

Cocktail Reception: 4:30 – 6:30 pm || Sponsor Dinner: 6:30 – 8:00 pm

Join us for the L.A. Conservancy's annual benefit on October 5 at the Thomas Mann House, the Pacific Palisades home of the German Nobel Prize winning author and political exile whose spirit lives on at a property that miraculously survived this year's wildfires.

Mann worked with Modernist architect J.R. Davidson to design the home he called Seven Palms, with a California feel on the outside, and a German aesthetic on the inside. Mann lived here with his family from 1942-1952, when he wrote some of his most well-known work. The house was saved from demolition in 2016 by the German government, which bought and restored it, turning it into a space for cultural programming and a scholar and artist residency program.

The Conservancy is proud that our benefit location is also this year's honoree for its resilience, community spirit, dedication to the preservation of historic spaces, and celebration of intellectual freedom.

Please join us for a night honoring this special location and the resilient community that gave shape to many of Mann's most important musings, the Pacific Palisades. The event will be held on Sunday, October 5, with a cocktail and hors d'oeuvres reception, home tour, and classical music performance, followed by an intimate sponsor dinner underneath the home's namesake, Seven Palms. This year – Mann's 150th birthday year – we venture beyond the palms for an evening of remembrance, conversation, and celebration.
