

LOS ANGELES CONSERVANCY 2026 BENEFIT HONORING

A REVERED RESIDENCE

PAUL REVERE WILLIAMS' MAGNIFICENT PALEY HOUSE

OCTOBER 4, 2026

HOLMBY HILLS LOS ANGELES

COCKTAIL RECEPTION & TOURS: 4:00 – 6:00 PM | FESTIVE SPONSOR DINNER: 6:00 – 8:00 PM

Join the Los Angeles Conservancy at an extraordinary and rarely seen historic residence:
the Jay Paley House in Holmby Hills, completed in 1936.

As Los Angeles celebrates the extraordinary legacy of its most prolific architect, Paul Revere Williams, through exhibitions across the city, this year's Benefit offers a limited opportunity to experience perhaps his most exceptional masterpiece firsthand. A crown jewel in Williams's portfolio, the Jay Paley House served as the private residence of Barron and Marilyn Hilton for six decades and has remained largely unseen by the public—until now.

Enjoy an exclusive evening of cocktails, tours, and dinner al fresco on the expansive historic grounds of Paul R. Williams' Jay Paley House. Guests will get an intimate look at the house's special design details, including one of Los Angeles' most iconic swimming pools: the sunbeam-tiled Zodiac pool, boasting striking astrological motifs.

This event is an extremely rare opportunity to experience this truly exceptional home. Its brilliance can be fully experienced only in person.

See below for sponsorship and ticket details.
